Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, President The University of California Serkeley, California

By dear Dr. Sproul:

I am writing to request that you accord a leave of absence to he may accept a call to work with this agency on matters of extreme importance to the national security. Knowing ____academic commitments, it is with regret that we ask for his services. However, he has unusual qualifications which make him very important to the essential work of this agency.

I am sure that you and the University of California will reslice that you are performing a national service in releasing this work.
